

A Taste of the Seasons: A Review of "Seasonal Preserves" by Joanna Farrow

As the seasons change, so too does the bounty of fresh fruits and vegetables that nature provides. From the juicy strawberries of summer to the crisp apples of fall, each season offers its own unique flavors that can be enjoyed long after the harvest is over. One of the best ways to preserve the flavors of the season is through the art of preserving.

In her book "Seasonal Preserves", author Joanna Farrow shares her expertise on preserving the flavors of each season through a variety of methods, including jams, jellies, chutneys, and more. With over 100 recipes to choose from, there's something for everyone in this comprehensive guide to preserving.
