The Zen Tradition

Zen is a branch of Buddhism that originated in China during the Tang dynasty. It is a tradition that emphasizes meditation, mindfulness, and the pursuit of enlightenment. Zen practitioners seek to find their true nature by letting go of attachments and illusions.

The Druid Tradition

Druidry is a Celtic spiritual tradition that originated in Britain and Ireland. Druids were the religious leaders and spiritual advisors of the Celtic people. They were also skilled in astronomy, healing, and other arcane arts.

The Convergence of Zen and Druidry

Pagan Portal Zen Druidry brings together the teachings and practices of Zen and Druidry in a unique and accessible way. This book shows how these two traditions can complement each other, offering a path to spiritual awakening and a deeper connection with the natural world.
