Sammy is a little lamb who loves to play in the green grass. He has a lot of friends, but his best friend is his Shepherd. The Shepherd always takes good care of Sammy, and he always knows where to find the best grass and water.

One day, Sammy wandered away from the Shepherd. He wanted to explore the world and see what was beyond the meadow. He walked for a long time, and soon he was lost. He was scared and alone, and he didn't know how to get back to the Shepherd.

As Sammy wandered around, he came to a dark forest. He was afraid to go in, but he knew he had to find his way back to the Shepherd. So he took a deep breath and stepped inside.

The forest was dark and scary, but Sammy kept walking. He knew that the Shepherd would come for him, and he didn't want to give up hope.

Suddenly, Sammy heard a sound. He looked up and saw a bright light. He followed the light, and soon he came to a clearing. In the middle of the clearing was a shepherd, and he was holding a lamb in his arms.

Sammy knew that the shepherd was his Shepherd, and he ran to him. The Shepherd hugged Sammy tightly, and he was so glad to see him.

The Shepherd led Sammy out of the forest and back to the meadow. Sammy was so happy to be home, and he never wandered away from the Shepherd again.

The story of Sammy and his Shepherd is a beautiful allegory for our relationship with Jesus Christ. Jesus is our Shepherd, and he always takes good care of us. He always knows where to find the best grass and water, and he always leads us back to safety when we wander away.

If you are feeling lost or alone, remember the story of Sammy and his Shepherd. Jesus is always there for you, and he will never give up on you. He will always lead you back to safety, and he will always give you hope.

The 23rd Psalm

The 23rd Psalm is one of the most beloved and well-known passages in the Bible. It is a beautiful and comforting psalm that speaks of God's love and care for his people.

The psalm begins with the words, "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want." This is a powerful statement of faith and trust. It declares that God is all that we need. He will provide for us, he will protect us, and he will guide us.
