A Kaleidoscope of Holiday Traditions

Beyond the historical narrative, "Hanukkah Is Coming" is a vibrant celebration of the rich customs associated with the holiday. Through lyrical descriptions and charming illustrations, Newman unveils the diverse ways in which Jewish families around the world observe Hanukkah.

Children will learn about the lighting of the menorah, a nightly ritual that symbolizes the triumph of light over darkness. They will discover the tradition of spinning the dreidel, a game of chance that adds a touch of excitement to the festivities. And of course, no Hanukkah celebration is complete without the delectable treats of latkes and sufganiyot.

Exquisite Illustrations That Bring the Story to Life

Tracy Newman's illustrations are a visual feast that perfectly complement the heartwarming narrative. Her use of rich colors, intricate details, and expressive characters transports readers into the vibrant world of Hanukkah.

Each page is a work of art, capturing the joy, wonder, and traditions of the holiday season. Children will pore over the illustrations, discovering hidden details and reveling in the beauty of Newman's artistic vision.

A Timeless Treasure for Families of All Ages

"Hanukkah Is Coming" is not only an engaging storybook but also a cherished keepsake that families will treasure for generations to come. It is a book that will ignite the magic of Hanukkah in young hearts, deepening their understanding of the holiday's significance while fostering a love for Jewish culture and traditions.

Whether read aloud during Hanukkah gatherings or enjoyed as a bedtime story throughout the year, "Hanukkah Is Coming" is a literary gift that will continue to inspire, delight, and connect families for years to come.
